

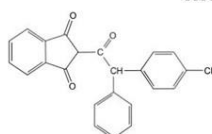

GRAPHICAL ABSTRACT

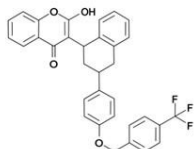

Field Efficacy of Anticoagulant Rodenticide Towards Managing Rodent Pests In Jitra Rice Field, Kedah, Malaysia

Maisarah Burhanuddin, Hafidzi Mohd Noor, Nur Athirah Asrif, Hasber Salim, Syari Jamian and Badrul Azhar

Field efficacy of anticoagulant rodenticide towards managing rodent pests in Jitra rice field, Kedah

Use chlorophacinone during control rounds

Use flucoumafen when there is an outbreak then maintained with chlorophacinone

MAR	APR	MAY	JUNE	JULY	AUG	SEPT	OCT	NOV	DEC	JAN	FEB
-----	-----	-----	------	------	-----	------	-----	-----	-----	-----	-----

Rodent control during early dry season is more effective because:
 - Absence of food causing baits to be attractive and baiting rounds be more effective

Rodent control during wet season is can be challenging due to:
 - rain and unexpected flooding area
 -weatherability of baits.
 -conduct control during early planting stages(land preparation).