

Contributors

Wacana Seni Journal of Arts Discourse • Vol. 25, No. 1, 2026

Achmad Syarief is a lecturer at the Faculty of Art and Design, Institut Teknologi Bandung, and also a researcher in human-object interaction and psychophysical evaluation of designed artefacts.

Anak Agung Gede Rai Remawa is a lecturer at the Indonesian Institute of the Arts Denpasar, specialising in the aesthetic philosophy of Balinese spatial concepts.

Delfin Febriansyah is a student in the Theatre Study Programme at Institut Seni Indonesia Surakarta, with a focus on make-up and costume design. He is currently pursuing his Master's degree in the Study of Performing Arts and Fine Arts at Universitas Gadjah Mada, Yogyakarta, Indonesia.

Enrique D'Amico (PhD) is a lecturer and researcher at the Faculty of Arts, National University of La Plata, Argentina. He is a member of the Research and Development Laboratory in Industrial Design (LIDDI). His work focuses on industrial design, entrepreneurship, design culture, and territorial development. His research interests include professional trajectories, socio-productive ecosystems, and discursive approaches to design practice.

Federico Del Giorgio Solfa (PhD) is a full professor at the Faculty of Arts, National University of La Plata, Argentina, and Deputy Director of the Research and Development Laboratory in Industrial Design (LIDDI). He is also a researcher at the Scientific Research Commission of the Province of Buenos Aires (CIC-PBA). His work focuses on industrial design, innovation, project management, entrepreneurship, and local development. His current research examines design culture, socio-productive ecosystems, and the social dimensions of design practice.

Florens Debora Patricia (PhD) is a visual artist and academic who serves as a lecturer in Visual Communication Design at Institut Teknologi Sepuluh Nopember. Her animated GIFs and stickers are widely available on social media platforms, including Instagram, Facebook, Twitter, Giphy, Tenor, and Gif Magazine, and on prominent GIF animation websites. Information about her distinctive digital art can be found at her website (flay.carrrd.co) or on her blogs (flayravenz.tumblr.com and giphy.com/flayravenz). She is always available for collaborative visual projects and commissions.

Hairul Hafizi Hasnan (PhD) is a senior lecturer and the current Deputy Dean of Development at the Faculty of Creative Arts, Universiti Malaya. His research intersects music and technology, focusing on audio engineering, digital audio workstations, and music production. He serves as an editor for scholarly publications that explore contemporary advancements and creative research in the arts and technology.

Imam Santosa is a lecturer at the Faculty of Art and Design, Institut Teknologi Bandung, with research expertise in human-space interaction and interior cultural environments.

Mohd Fairuz Zamani (PhD) specialises in systematic musicology, critical musicology, and artistic research. He is the current Deputy Dean of Postgraduate, Research and Innovation at the Faculty of Creative Arts, Universiti Malaya, and a Kawai Artist. He recently published a book with Springer Nature titled Songs of the Kampung under the Asia in Transition book series.

Mohd Firdaus Mohd Herrow (PhD) is a Lecturer at the Faculty of Art and Design, Universiti Teknologi MARA Selangor Branch. His research interests focus on photography, new media design, and cultural heritage preservation, particularly on documenting and digitally preserving Malay traditional arts.

Noriah Ahmad is the Head of Cultural Unit at Institut Warisan Melaka (INSWA). Her expertise centres on Malay philosophy and Malay traditional performing arts, particularly in the preservation, teaching, and transmission of traditional dance heritage.

Nur Zaidi Azraai (PhD) is a Senior Lecturer at the School of The Arts, Universiti Sains Malaysia. His research expertise includes media arts anthropology and motion mapping, with a focus on interdisciplinary approaches to digital media, performance, and cultural studies.

Rasslenda Rass Rasalingam is a lecturer and researcher at Universiti Sains Malaysia (USM), School of the Arts, specialising in Human–Computer Interaction and Educational Technology. She holds a PhD in Instructional Strategies (USM), a Master's in Instructional Multimedia (USM), and a Bachelor's degree in Multimedia from Universiti Utara Malaysia (UUM). Her research interests include augmented reality, user interface design, gamification, and emotion-based learning systems. She has published widely in areas such as AR applications in education, digital learning environments, and interactive multimedia systems.

Roznim Mohamad Rasli is a Senior Lecturer and the Deputy Director at the Centre for Co-Curriculum, Universiti Pendidikan Sultan Idris, Malaysia. She specialises in Information Technology, with core research expertise spanning Artificial Intelligence, Knowledge Management, and Human–Computer Interaction. Her work actively explores digital transformation, smart educational technologies, and software engineering applications. She has authored numerous peer-reviewed studies and continues to drive academic research and student development within her field.

Ruziana Mohamad Rasli is a senior academic and researcher at UUM, specialising in Multimedia Technology and Human–Computer Interaction. She holds a PhD in Information Technology (Ontology) from UUM, a Master's degree in Information Technology, and a Bachelor's degree in Software Engineering. Her research interests include augmented reality, multimedia systems, ontology engineering, and human–computer interaction design. She has published extensively in international journals and book chapters focusing on AR applications, digital learning, and intelligent systems.

Seruni Kusumawardhani is a doctoral candidate at the Faculty of Art and Design, Institut Teknologi Bandung, focusing on spatial studies, ritual space, and performative traditions in Balinese culture, as well as an Interior Design lecturer at Bina Nusantara University.

Wahyu Novianto is a lecturer in the Theatre Study Programme at Institut Seni Indonesia Surakarta. His research focuses on dramaturgical approaches, with several published studies examining local and surrounding socio-cultural phenomena.